"DIP THE APPLE IN THE HONEY...
HAVE A HAPPY SWEET NEW YEAR!"
There's a beautiful custom on Rosh Hashanah to eat apples dipped in honey wishing each other a sweet new year of happiness and blessing... Judah's tradition that happiness is a taste of being... comes from within. Our lives are filled with beautiful treasures that we so easily take for granted... precious gifts that no money can buy.
When we focus on the simple gifts of life—that we can walk, see and hear, that we have friends and family—our lives are filled with joy. On Rosh Hashanah we pray for a year of true awareness and the ability to appreciate the simple gifts of bringing happiness and joy to our new year.
Shana Tova!
